Compliance Chemistry

This statement is based on the information currently available to DELO (e.g. from suppliers) and the deliberate use of a product in the formulation where its continued presence is desired to provide a specific characteristic, appearance, property, attribute or quality. Therefore, DELO conducted a chemical review of the customer's substances list and the ingredients of DELO's formulation(s). Further aspects are not covered or accepted by this document. DELO particularly points out that a complete ban or a threshold value of 0 ppm for a substance is not possible to achieve as a matter of principle, and furthermore not possible to declare as non-relevant traces could possibly be detected with appropriate testing equipment. DELO products are compliant with the applicable German and European laws. In addition DELO's general terms and conditions of business apply, the applicable law is German law and place of jurisdiction is Munich. Verbal side agreements are not permitted.
